

Jamestown Chamber of Commerce

2017 Committees

The Chamber of Commerce will function with five committees. The committee membership will be both board and non-board Chamber members with one year terms. Individuals can be on more than one committee. The committees will meet at least quarterly with periodic reports at the monthly board meetings.

Events- Responsibilities will include planning and making recommendations for regular events, including, but not limited to: “Business after Hours,” “Winter Breakfast Series,” summer events and December Holiday Stroll and Holiday Party.

Members: Maria Flood, Mark Swistak Jr., Ben Thomas, and Peggy Kopelcheck

Finance- Assist Treasurer in preparing the annual budget for board approval, tax return and act as auditors.

Members: Cathleen Studley and Susan Hackman

Government Relations- Monitor the Town Council meetings for issues concerning local business community. Consider statewide and national issues as they relate to Jamestown.

Members: Jeff Bush and Bill Piva

Marketing/Pubic Relations- Assist in developing and reviewing press releases and ads and other media publicizing the Chamber.

Members: Ben Thomas, Peggy Kopelcheck and Iain Wilson

Membership- Maintain contact with membership as it relates to their needs. Make routine calls on members and in particular new members to ensure retention. Additionally, the committee will oversee membership development programs such as seminars and help organize membership groups such as “home based businesses.”

Members: Maria Flood, Jeff Bush, and Bill Piva
